STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 15 .- Honors were divided today in the Olympic events, a number of countries showing up well and helping to held America's score down. In the 1600-meter relay race, each country entering four men and each man running 400 meters, America's team came in winners, with France secand England third. In the hop, step and jump, in which America had hoped for second or third place at least, Sweden won a surprise by carrying off all three places.

James Thorpe, the great all-around Carlisle Indian athlete, member of the American team, won the decathlon, consisting of ten events, including jumping, running and weight-throwing. Sweden's entries won second an One of the interesting events was the 400-meter relay swim for women
